AT A SPECIAL MEETING OF FULTON ENGINE CO.

A No 21, held at their engine house in Anthony street, on raturday evening, October 7, 1854, the following resolutions were unanimously afopted:—
Resolved, That the thanks of this Company are emimently due, and are hereby gratefully given, to the officers and members or arraseoh Co No 2 of Jersey City, for their hind invitation to accompany them on their parade in celebrating the introduction of the Passaic water Works in their city on the 2d day of October last. For their hopitable recoption, for their generous kindness, for their galiant secure during the day, and attending us to the ferry; in abort, for every act trey did from the moment of our arrival in their city to the moment of our regards, and they may rest assured the memory of that day will form one of the bright spots in ear lives, to which we can ever avert with unmixed pleamers and proud satisace for.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Company are also due to the officers and members of Hok and Ladder Co.

Me. 1 of Jersey City, for the generous manner (and accompany to our requires comment and all Jersey City.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Company are also one to the officers and members of Hook and Ladder Co.

Me. 1 of Jersey City, for the generous manner (and according to our experience, common to all Jersey City formen) with which they treated us, while we were waiting to form into line, and during the rain which fell, but which, throwing cold water as it did on the whole affair, ould not drainish the undertating kindness and attention of our Jersey City friends.

Resolved, That to Washington Engine Company No. 20 of New York we are indebted for an excort to and from the irry. We cannot withhold from them the expression of our thanks, and can only assess them that reciprocity is as good a sentiment between the firemen of New York as it is between nations, and we trust we may soon have as opportunity o manifesting the good will and friend-ship they so hanss mely meted out to us.

Kesolved, that in our heart of hearts we shall always remember the ladies of Jersey city. Their bright and genial amiles tollowed us during the whole parade, and their cheering presence inspired us with that manly sentiment which ever belongs to the true fireman in the presence of lovely woman; and for the tenderness they displayed and the beautiful wreaths they presented to the little son of our assistant Foreman, Mr. Ryan, they have his and our ever leasing thanks.
